MONDAY, JULY 5. 1736.

N^o 319.

The last Mail from Holland brought these Advices.

Petersburg, June 8, O. S.

HE Court has receiv'd the following Advices from our Army in Crim Tartary.

In five of the six Towers of the Tartars Intrenchments, there were found 60 or 70 Pieces of Cannon, together with the Kan's Tent, his Coach, and the Spying Glafs he made use of the Day before his Defeat, to observe the Russian Army.

On the 20th of May, Count Munich sent a Regiment of Foot, and some Artillery, to attack the 6th fortify'd Tower of the Lines of Precop, which was the only one that remain'd to be taken, but at his Approach the Janissaries abandon'd it, leaving four Cannon behind them.

Next Day the General made the necessary Preparations to attack the Castle of Precop, in two Places, upon which the Turks sent out a Couple of Officers to desire a Capitulation, and quitted the Place the Day following, to the Number of 2254 Men. In this Castle they left 84 Brass Guns, and a great Quantity of Ammunition and Provisions. The Count de Munich immediately put 800 Grenadiers into it.

On the 23d of May Te Deum was sung in the Army, with a triple Salvo of the Small Arms, and Count Munich enter'd into the Possession of the Lines and Forts taken from the Enemy. He detach'd a considerable Body towards the Dnieper, to observe the Motions of the Turks and Tartars that might come from Oczakoff, or that way, to dispute their Passage, and he march'd, with the rest of the Army, towards Bacciefaray, which is the Capital of Crim Tartary, and the Residence of it's Kan.

A Fire broke out here on the 14th, in the Palace of the Persian Ambassador, which was almost intirely burnt down; nevertheless that Minister caus'd a Fire-work to be play'd off here next Day, by way of Rejoicing for the Defeat of the Tartars.

On the 2d Instant Te Deum was sung here for Count Munich's signal Victory over the Tartars at Precop, upon which Occasion there were three Salvos from the Cannon of the Ramparts, and the Admiralty, viz. One as the Czarina pass'd by Water to the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, a second while the Te Deum was singing, and a third at the Czarina's Return to her Palace.

Dresden, June 18. O. S. An Exprels is just now come thro' this City, from Warfaw to Hanover, who says, that the general Dyet of Pacification was open'd on the 14th, and that the Primate, upon that Occasion, made an excellent Speech.

Vienna, June 19. O. S. The Report of a Peace tapp'd up between the Turks and Persians, is not confirm'd by the Letters of the 18th ult. from Constantinople. They say, indeed, that there was such a Rumour, but that 'twas believ'd the Porte had spread it on purpose to amuse the Populace. Our Court has appointed some of the General Officers that are to command in Hungary under Velt Marshal Palfi, General in Chief.

Rome, June 12. O. S. Monday last a Vine-dresser dy'd without the Gate of Pia, who left all his Estate, by Will, to the Emperor of Germany, consisting of a Vineyard, with his little House, four Crows in ready Money, some few Household Goods, and a Sack of Corn; and the Count de Harrach has actually sent an Inventory of what he has left to the Court of Vienna.

Hanover, June 27. O. S. Letters from Cassel advise, that his Highness Prince William of Hesse intends to leave that Place on Tuesday next, in order to come hither to pay his Court to his Majesty. On the 2d Instant M. Ridefell, Envoy from the Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt, took his Audience of Leave of the King. The 5th M. d'Uffel, Prime Minister of the Duke of Saxe Gotha, had his Audience of Leave; as did likewise M. de Stutternheim, Envoy from Saxe-

Eisenach; and the same Day M. d'Assebourg, Envoy from the Elector of Cologne, having received some Letters from his Electoral Highness, had a private Audience of his Majesty. On Friday the 6th, Edward Finch, Esq; his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Sweden, who had obtained his Majesty's Leave to come for England on his private Affairs, and been here since his Majesty's Arrival, set out from hence for Holland in his Way to England.

Hague, June 29. O. S. The States of Holland are to resume their meeting To-morrow, and on Friday next (it is thought) will name some Person to be Secretary for Holland, and fill up the other civil and military Employments that are vacant: It is believed M. Vischer will be declared Secretary, though the City of Rotterdam use great Endeavours to procure that Employment for Pensionary Booy.

L O N D O N.

His Ancestor received the Honour of Baron and Earl the 22d of James the First. He was descended of an ancient Family seated at Badfell in Kent, of which was Francis Fane, Esq; Son and Heir of Sir Thomas Fane, Kt. by Mary his Wife, sole Daughter and Heir to Henry Nevell Lord Abergavenny (afterwards created Baroness Dispencher.) This Francis was Knight of the Bath; and in the Time of James the First, created Baron Burghersh and Earl of Westmoreland.
